Extraordinary. Most Sustainable.

RedFrog is the newest brand by PaperFoam in Barneveld, the Netherlands. We offer the most sustainable, eye-catching egg cartons on the market. After extensive research and testing, we launch the egg cartons in a range of standard and custom designs.

Cocos White, Cognac and Dark Cocoa

PaperFoam certifications

Biodegradable

Our egg packaging solution is fully biodegradable. It contains industrial starch and cellulose fibers which are renewable raw materials and contain no pollutants. Production and manufacturing is highly energy-efficient. Together with ultra-Lightweight properties, this egg carton is by far the most sustainable.

Certifications

RedFrog uses verified BioBased, home compostable and biodegradable materials, produced with PaperFoam injection molding technology. This makes the eco-footprint extremely small.

Save and healthy eggs

We are proud to present our 10 egg standard carton: Biobase-10 in twelve colors. We have named our standard color range after superfoods to emphasise the healthy and safe properties of this PaperFoam produced packaging solution. No additives are in the carton, that means no worries about pollutants ending up inside your eggs.
